Description

Hi Santi - can you build a Siegfried 1.6.7 package for Ubuntu and centOS and add to 1.6.x packages repo?

Testing note - current version of Siegfried is unable to identify .jdf files.

The rpm package is built and uploaded to the repo, I'm fighting against the debian one.

I wasn't able to find a jdf file for testing :(

My vagrant box is failing to identify with Siegfried.

When I run sf -version, I get:

2017/03/04 17:07:34 [FATAL] error loading signature file, got: siegfried: error opening signature file, got open /home/vagrant/siegfried/default.sig: no such file or directory; try running `sf -update`

Justin, are you able to take a look at this?

Note, I'm not having this issue on either of the test servers that Hector deployed (amsrccentostest and amsrcub14test).

#8 - 03/06/2017 07:08 AM - Justin Simpson

- Status changed from Feedback to In progress

I get the same error, I am investigating.

Santiago uploaded a new version of the siegfried package for ubuntu.

This can be tested by doing:

```
sudo apt-get update
sudo apt-get install siegfried
```

and then trying

```
sf -version

again.

Looks good, is working now.
